London...

I have been in London for a while now MAGNIFICENT

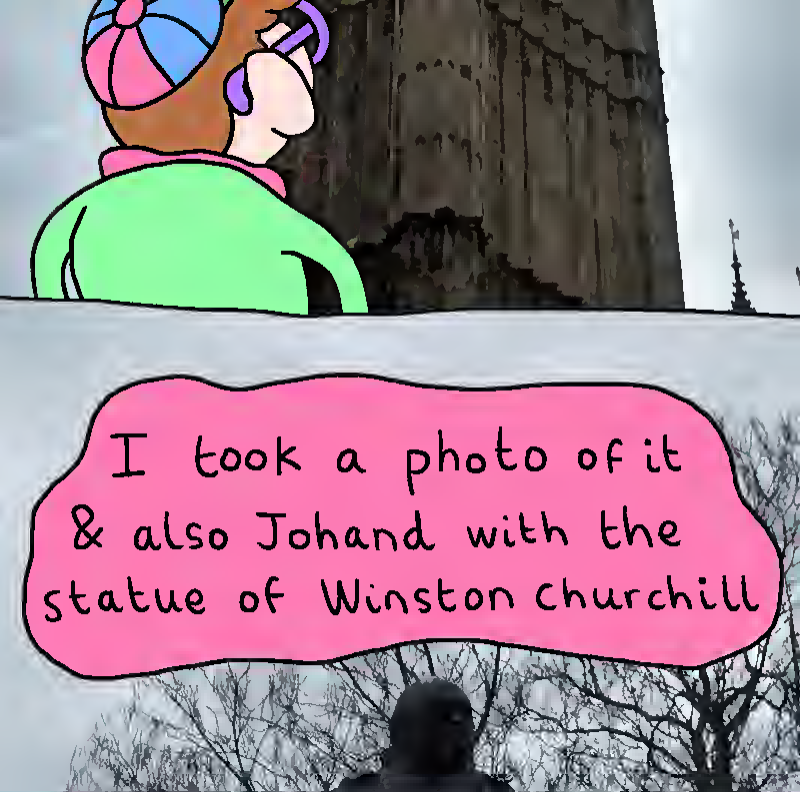
but I have only shown you the weird corners of the city.

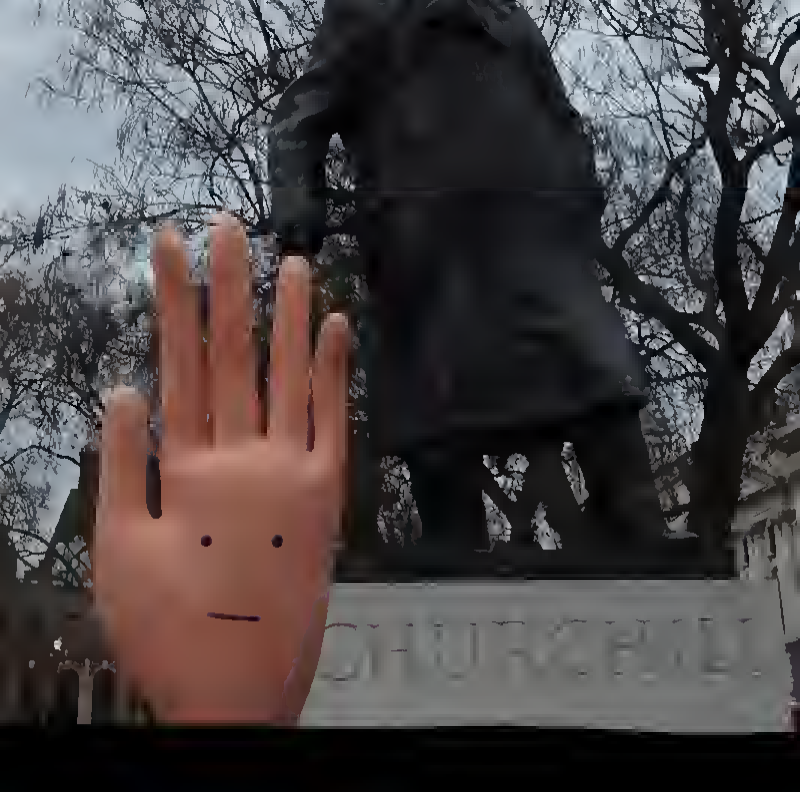
TIME to be a TOURIST!

HARRODS
I got off the tube at Westminster

Big Ben
loomed
over me



I took a photo of it & also Johand with the statue of Winston Churchill



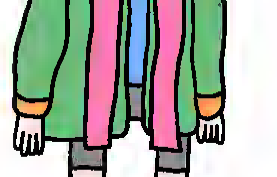
CHURCHILL

and then my phone died

so I couldn't take

photos

THE WORST TOURIST



If you don't have a photo of a place...

how can you prove
you've been there?
